- 3 Individual Competition
- 3.1 In order for an athlete to be declared a medal winner (i.e. 1st, 2nd, 3rd places) it will be necessary for him/her to have won at least one real fight (2 competitors on the tatami-fusen gachi is not considered to be a real win, only a step entitling the present competitor to continue), during the competitions in his/her category. A coincidental placement is not enough for a medal to be awarded.
- 3.2 A Minimum of 6 participants per weight category shall compete according to a pool system on a round robin basis. The 6 participants shall be divided into 2 pools A and B and at the end of the pool fights they shall participate in semi-finals and finals with the top two competitors in each pool going through. The winner of pool A shall fight the second in pool B and the winner of pool B shall fight the second in pool A.
With the winners shall compete for gold and silver with both losers being awarded a bronze medal
- 3.3 In the event of 2 pools a participant who ranks 2nd in his/her pool by coincidence without having achieved a real win (absence of opponent), shall be entitled to enter the finals but will receive a medal only if he/she achieves at least one real win at that stage.
- 3.4 If during the fights within a pool (up to 6 participants) a contestant fails to present himself/herself for a fight when he/she is called upon for any reason (injury or other) and whatever the order of that fight is he/she will be regarded as not having participated from the beginning and the results of his/her fights so far shall be eliminated and shall not contribute to the rankings either for him/her or for his/her opponents
- 3.5 In the event of there being more than six participants the event shall be carried out on a knockout basis under the double repechage system accepted by the International Judo Federation with the finalists competing for the gold and silver medal and with the finalists from the repechage both being awarded bronze medals.
- 3.6 In all competitions if a contestant fails to present himself/herself for one of his/her fights he/she shall not be permitted to participate in further fights (if any). However in the knockout system he/she will maintain the placement he/she reached on his/her last fight.
- 4 Team Competitions
- 4.1 In order to be able to participate, a team must cover a minimum of 4 weight categories.
- 4.2 Each team shall be entitled to enter a reserve in every weight category. An athlete can be used as a reserve in the category in which he naturally belongs and the immediately heavier one.
- 4.3 In the case of the absence of a contestant in a weight category his opponent – if any – shall receive a score of 10, and such total shall contribute to the total of the team score (fusen gachi is valid in team competitions).
- 4.4 The minimum entry for the team competition to take place is 6 teams.
- 4.5 In the event of 6 teams entering then the competition shall take place on a pool system on a round robin basis and on the same basis as the individual competition.
